After your application has been received, a board member will contact you with information about upcoming board meeting dates, times, and locations. You will need to attend a board meeting to meet the board members. At that meeting, the board will review your application and conduct a brief interview. The board will then make a decision about whether you have been accepted as a club member. If you are accepted as a club member, your name will be given to members desiring to sell their memberships. You will also be informed of the membership purchasing process.

If you have any questions about this application, please call:
